

INVESTMENT MANAGER, WORKING WITH INVESTMENTS IN EMERGING MARKETS AND DEVELOPING COUNTRIES – BASED IN COPENHAGEN

Are you motivated by creating impact in countries across Africa, Asia, Latin America and part of Europe? IFU is growing and is looking for Investment Managers to join us in making a difference.

IFU is Denmark's Development Finance Institution. We strive to be a best-in-class impact investor by making commercial private sector investments that support the green transition, as well as building just and inclusive societies in developing countries and emerging markets. IFU has a strong focus on creating sustainable and responsible businesses, which generate measurable social, economic and climate impacts as well as solid financial returns.

The position and your tasks

As Investment Manager, you will:

- become part of an engaged and experienced investment organisation with over 50 investment professionals covering all types of investments.
- primarily be a member of deal teams; analysing and executing new investment proposals, conducting due diligence, carrying out financial modelling, taking part in negotiating terms and drafting legal documentation, preparing, and following up on materials for the investment committee and board, etc.

The position is based in our headquarters in the beautiful center of Copenhagen, right next to Marmorkirken. IFU offers a hybrid and flexible workplace.

The team

You will become part of the Investment department that consists of over 50 highly qualified and motivated Investment Professionals working in teams covering sectors like Financial Services, Sustainable Food Systems, Healthcare and Green Energy & Infrastructure, the Development Guarantee Facility team, and DSIF delivering on public sustainable infrastructure projects. You would be expected to join one of the investment teams to begin with, while taking part in a rotation program allowing you to develop your knowledge and expertise in the different sectors as your career develops.

In IFU we attach great importance to good teamwork and collaboration, maintaining a positive atmosphere and having fun together. We help each other out, share our knowledge, and – while each of us hold high standards and integrity to our work – we don't take ourselves too seriously and share a good laugh.

Your qualifications & experience

Key qualifications are 2-5 years of experience in M&A, corporate finance, private equity, impact investing, consulting, or other relevant experience. In addition, you:

IFU has a strong set of values that guides us in our work with external partners and colleagues:

CARE

- are an expert user of Microsoft Office and especially Excel, with an aptitude for financial modelling
- are fluent in English both in writing and spoken
- are curious to broaden your understanding of the world and keen to travel

Working and learning at IFU

Learning is an important element of working in IFU, and we will support your personal development through training, sparring and by ensuring that you get exciting and challenging tasks and new opportunities for growth.

As you build your career, you will be part of sourcing new investment opportunities and building an international network, preparing, and taking part in meetings with investment partners all over the world. We will support and guide your development within the investment process. As you grow within IFU, you will gradually take part in managing our portfolio companies, contributing to the active ownership and eventually represent IFU on portfolio company boards. You will be mentored on the way and supported by an experienced Vice President, who will guide your professional development. IFU's learning culture provides the tools and organisation for individual development.

IFU offers a hybrid workplace with flexible working hours, allowing you to manage your own time effectively. We offer company pension and private healthcare. Lunch is served in our own canteen every day (with a rooftop terrace) and on Fridays, IFU invites for a common breakfast. We offer a diverse and inclusive working environment with approximately 130 talented individuals from 20+ different nationalities, who enjoy and foster our fun and collaborative atmosphere. We work seamlessly together across the organization and between offices in Asia, Africa, LATAM and Europe.

Your application

Please send your CV and motivated application to job2@ifu.dk as soon as possible, we will screen applications and conduct interviews on an ongoing basis.
